Legislature OK's School, Relief Emergency Funds

Gov. Stratton Signs Bill for School Money

Measure is First Law Enacted by 1955 Legislature

SPRINGFIELD — An emergency appropriation for schools today became the first law enacted by the 1955 Illinois Legislature.

Gov. William G. Stratton announced he had signed a bill appropriating $6,300,000 to make up a deficiency in 1953-55 funds for aid to common schools and pupil transportation.

Extra money was needed because not enough was appropriated two years ago to meet school district claims in full for the final six months of the biennium, which ends June 30. Checks making up the difference are expected to go out to school districts shortly.

The school bill was among the first to win final legislative approval in a busy session Tuesday, in which lawmakers also introduced a whopping 92 new bills.

Both houses held short, perfunctory sessions today, then adjourned until next Tuesday.

Before the school bill was approved Tuesday, the House tacked on a minor amendment. The Senate okayed it, and then the bill was sent to Stratton for his signature.

Approves Relief Deficiency
The House also voted final, unanimous approval to a 12½-million-dollar deficiency for general relief. Majority Leader John W. Lewis (R-Marshall) said without the money, funds for relief would be exhausted by mid-February.

Democrats chided the GOP for saying in the relief bill that declining economic conditions and unemployment in 1953-54 made the measure necessary. The Democrats said the Republicans called them "prophets of gloom and doom" for saying the same thing before the election.

Rep. David Hunter Jr. (R-Rockford) said "We might have had a few more on relief but we didn't have so many coming home from Korea killed and wounded."

Money for Fairs
The House also passed and sent to the Senate a $96,000 appropriation to make deficit payments to 76 county fairs from the agricultural premium fund.

Among the bills and resolutions introduced were measures to:

Hike the state sales tax half a cent, with proceeds to be earmarked for common schools, by Democratic Reps. Paul Powell, Vienna, and Leo Pfeffer, Seymour.

Create a commission with a $1,000 appropriation to study whether there should be a state bonus for Korean War veterans.

Provide a referendum on a constitutional amendment to allow downstate county boards to name a county manager, patterned after the city manager law, by Democratic Rep. Samuel H. Shapiro, Dan-Kakee.

Create a commission with $10,000 to study recreational possibilities of the Illinois-Mississippi Canal and Mississippi Lake, introduced in both Senate and House by North-Central Illinois legislators.

Aid for Dairymen
Help the dairy industry through a series of bills presented by Lewis to raise the butterfat requirement for whole milk from 3 to 4 per cent, requiring anything less to be labeled skimmed milk, and restricting the use of the term "butter" to products using only that fat.

Create a state public utility agency with a $50,000 two-year appropriation, to fight utility rate hikes and service cuts, by Sen. Marshall Korshak (D-Chicago) and others.

Boost workmen's compensation and occupational disease benefits 25 per cent and extend the occu-

Chances Fade for Families To Visit Kin in China Due To Tension Over Formosa

WASHINGTON (UP) — Chances for American families to visit their jailed kin in Red China faded today as U. S. Communist Chinese tension mounted over the future of Formosa.

Informed sources indicated the United States will not let any Americans travel to Communist China while there is danger of hostilities breaking out over Formosa. They said, however, that a final decision still must be made.

The State Department has not said yet whether it will permit or bar relatives of 17 imprisoned Americans from accepting Red China's offer to visit the men in Communist jails. The department has said only that it cannot "encourage" such visits to a nation where it is unable to guarantee protection of Americans.

The United States does not have diplomatic relations with Communist China.

Feel Danger Heightened
Some top officials apparently feel that it would be even more dangerous to approve the visits now because of the possibility of hostilities breaking out in the Formosa Straits. If the relatives were in Red China at such a time, they might be trapped there.

The State Department had been hoping that none of the relatives would accept the Communist invitation which is believed by experts to be nothing but a slick propaganda trap. However, kin of at least five of the prisoners have said they want to go.

The State Department itself has word that three want to make the trip. It is considering replies to these three.

Those who have expressed a desire to visit are:

7th Fleet Would Spell Suicide For Red Invasion

WASHINGTON (UP) — The United States 7th Fleet would spell bloody suicide for a Red Chinese invasion force launched against Formosa, in the opinion of naval authorities.

Operating in the Western Pacific with its major elements now massing near Formosa, the fleet probably numbers some 200 ships manned by an estimated 40,000 officers and men.

Spearheaded by five big aircraft carriers, four of them already in Formosan waters, it could hurl murderous fire into a Red force ferried toward Chiang Kai-Shek's island in wooden junks with torpedo boats and little frigates for protection.

Mounts 500 Planes
The fleet's carriers can mount about 500 Panther and Banshee jet fighters and Skyraider attack bombers. Additional planes are available in land-based patrol squadrons.

Soon, the mighty 45,000-ton Midway will replace one of the 7th Fleet's 29,100-ton Essex class carriers. The Midway class, of which there are three ships, is the largest afloat and came along too late for World War II. The Midway carries 14 five-inch guns compared with the Essex' 12 and can launch 130 planes to the Essex' 100.

Vice Adm. Alfred M. Pride, 7th Fleet commander, has said he now has available for whatever mission President Eisenhower assigns 4 carriers, 6 cruisers and 50 destroyers with supporting ships.

Veterans With Battle Stars
Three of the carriers — Essex, Wasp and Yorktown — fought in the major Pacific battles of World War II and are in familiar haunts in Formosan waters where they once fought the Japanese. The Kearsarge, also at Formosa, and the Princeton, elsewhere in the fleet at the moment, were commissioned too late for World War II but fought in Korea.

Pride says he has the stuff to "meet any opposition" in the course of evacuating Chiang's forces from the Tachen Islands north of Formosa, should that be ordered. He is a soft-spoken flag officer, not given to bluster.

His fleet is small by World War II standards. But it is big for the tasks now seen as possibilities.

A question mark in any showdown in the Formosa area would be Red submarines—the handful Communist China may have and the 90 or more Russia may be operating in Far Eastern waters near her Vladivostok and Port Arthur bases.

Naval sources said there has been no evidence up to now of Red submarine activity in the Formosa area. They said the 7th Fleet is prepared against the possibility of such action, however.

inate desire to make the journey are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fischer of Swea City, Iowa, Mrs. Marjorie Llewellyn of Missoula, Mont., John and Irene Kiba, Akron, Mrs. Edwin L. Heller, Wynnewood, Pa., and W. G. Parks, Omaha.

Might Delay Freedom
Some officials think it possible trips by the relatives actually might delay Communist China's release of the 17 prisoners. They reason that Red China could not release the Americans immediately after the visits because such a move would brand the Communist offer as a propaganda trick. To avoid such a label the Reds would have to hold the prisoners for some time before releasing them.

Assistant Secretary of State David Key said in an address on Tuesday night that the United States is still "hopeful" that the prisoners will be freed if Americans exercise restraint in this case.

Polio Penny Parade in Full Swing at HTHS

The Polio Penny Parade at Harrisburg Township high school is in full swing with more than 20,000 pennies received when the count was made this morning, Principal R. L. Foster has announced.

The leading candidate for HTHS Polio Penny Parade queen is Rob in Wathen, from E. J. Thompson's home room, which has collected 4,300 pennies.

Each of the thirty-one home rooms have a candidate and the candidate from the room collecting the highest percentage of its quota will represent Harrisburg in the county-wide contest.

Deadline for turning in pennies is 1 p.m. Friday. The quotas are based on 100 pennies per high school student.

The Polio Penny Parade Queen will be crowned at ceremonies during halftime of the opening game Friday night.

Participating in the ceremonies will be representatives from the four high schools — Carrier Mills, Galatia, Eldorado and host Harrisburg — twelve county polo patients who will be present as guests of the tournament and members from George Hart Post 167, American Legion.

It is expected that 180,000 pennies will be collected for the March of Dimes campaign and they will be counted and sacked following the half-time ceremonies.

Three money counters will be available for the job—from the Harrisburg American Legion post, Eldorado police department and Harrisburg Police department.

Harrisburg Electric Awarded Contract on School at McLeansboro

The Harrisburg Electric Company was the low bidder on electrical work for a school building at McLeansboro, according to decision of the board last night.

The project, under direction of McLeansboro Consolidated District No. 100, is for repairing the former East Side school at McLeansboro and construction of a new building to include class rooms, offices, cafeteria, shop and gymnasium-auditorium, plus remodeling of the old building.

The Harrisburg Electric share of the job is $28,771. Barendsanger Construction Co. of Vandavia was awarded the general contract at $195,331 and Main Hardware of Fairfield the plumbing and heating at $21,234.

Rev. Cummins Attends Illinois Ministers' Seminary at the UN

The Rev. W. L. Cummins, pastor of the Harrisburg First Methodist church is one of two ministers from the district attending an Illinois ministers' seminary at the United Nations in New York this week.

Rev. Cummins left by plane from Evansville Tuesday for New York. He will spend a couple of days at the United Nations, touring and studying the organization along with some fifty other ministers from various parts of the state. Rev. Cummins will return to Harrisburg the latter part of this week.

The Rev. John Henderson, Carmi, was the other minister of the Harrisburg district making the trip.

Senate Groups Vote Formosa Defense, 26-2

Resolution Will Be Brought to Floor Thursday

WASHINGTON (UP) — Two Senate committees today jointly approved President Eisenhower's fight-if-necessary proposal to defend Formosa against invasion by Communist China.

The vote was 26-2. Sens. William Langer (R-N. D.) and Wayne L. Morse (Ind-Ore.) dissented.

The action by the combined Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Service Committees came two days after Mr. Eisenhower asked Congress to give him blank-check authority to use American armed forces if necessary to defend the Chinese Nationalist stronghold.

The House Tuesday approved, 409-3, an identical resolution.

Chairman Walter George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said he will bring up the resolution on the Senate floor Thursday immediately after it meets jointly with the House to hear a speech by the president of Haiti.

Reject Substitute and Amendment
The combined Senate committee rejected, 20-8, an amendment by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) and a complete substitute by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.).

Kefauver's proposal would have limited separate U. S. action to Formosa and the Pescadores, eliminating the possibility that Quemoy and Matsu islands could be included in the necessary defense area. It also called for working through the United Nations in an effort to settle the problem.

It would have authorized the President to take military action to defend Formosa and the Pescadores "pending effective action by the United Nations."

Humphrey's amendment also was aimed at eliminating Quemoy and Matsu islands by eliminating language to permit U. S. defense of "related positions and territories."

Consider Ridgway Views
It was understood that Humphrey's proposal was designed to meet objections, attributed to Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, Army chief of staff, Tuesday, that U. S. ground forces are now too thinly spread to be committed to the defense of Quemoy.

While overwhelming approval seemed assured, the fears of some senators were aroused by warnings by General Ridgway, who testified before the two Senate groups.

The March is sponsored each year by the PTA with each school district covered in a house-to-house canvass by the various PTA organizations.

In a fund campaign conducted throughout the Harrisburg business district recently a total of $376.99 was collected.

One PTA group—from Liberty—did not participate in the drive Monday, but has planned its campaign for next Monday, Jan. 31.

Other March of Dimes receipts include the following—individual donations of $5 or more—Loran Watson $25, Dr. G. B. Hart $10, Carl Rude $10, Dr. Harold Brown $10, Luther Miller $10;

Dr. J. D. Wimpey $7, and the following of $5 each—D. F. Wager, E. W. Irvin, G. E. Tucker, Nelson Pankey, Maggie Walls, Dr. G. R. Johnson, Mrs. Chas. H. Thompson, Mrs. C. W. Rainbow, M. D. Hunsinger, Harold Parker;

March of Dimes Flag Stolen from Jackson Drug Corner

Crime has struck again at the Jackson drug store corner. Last Christmas Day, when the store was closed and the metropolitan newspapers were placed in front of the building for the customers, somebody stole the money cup.

Sunday night it was the March of Dimes flag that was taken. This flag was on the drug store's flagpole in front of the building and Monday morning it was missing.

Drug store personnel and March of Dimes officials are still wondering the motive for anybody's taking this flag.

Show of Force by 7th Fleet Planes is Warning to Red China

TAIPEI, Formosa (UP)—The U. S. 7th Fleet sent "large numbers" of planes into the air south of the Tachens as a warning to Red China that the United States means business, it was reported here today.

Waves of Nationalist heavy bombers smashed at Red Chinese invasion fleets north of the threatened island, sinking a 1,500-ton Communist warship, and Nationalist sources disclosed the Communists had made a fourth unsuccessful attempt to invade the Matsu islands.

Night raids by heavy Nationalist bombers appeared to have silenced Communist artillery on Yikiangshan Island, barely eight miles north of Tachen. The enemy guns which could interfere with evacuation of the island did not bombard Tachen during the day, it was reported here.

Chinese press reports here said Vice Adm. Alfred M. Pride, commander of the 7th Fleet, used 300 planes in the show of force north of Formosa, but naval sources here would not confirm the number of planes involved.

American pilots from the carrier Princeton were seen in Taipei today, leading to speculation the carrier had arrived in Formosan waters to reinforce the big carriers Yorktown, Kearsarge, Wasp and Essex already here. That would raise to 500 the number of carrier-based aircraft available to help in the evacuation of Tachen.

Planes Strike Red Positions
The Nationalist Chinese air force said its bombers struck Red positions north of Tachen, including recently captured Yikiangshan Island. The 1,500-ton enemy warship, big enough to be a destroyer or destroyer escort, was hit 32 miles north of Tachen. It was left flaming and dead in the water.

The Nationalists reported using 1,000-pound bombs against the Communist invasion fleets and said they hit Yikiangshan, barely eight miles north of Tachen, with 500-pound bombs in pre-dawn attacks. They said the Communist air force did not try to interfere.

There were no reports of Communist activity against Tachen today although the Reds have shelled it repeatedly, giving rise to

Sister of Carrier Mills Woman Dies in California

Mrs. John L. Gee of Carrier Mills has received word of the death of her sister, Mrs. Molly Clark, 63, who died Monday morning at her home in Long Beach, Calif., following a long illness. She will be known to her friends in Carrier Mills as Molly Thompson, wife of the late Charley (Trap) Thompson.

She leaves three sons, Kenneth and Fred Thompson, and John Clark, son of the late John Clark whom she married after the death of Mr. Thompson, all of California; five grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Grace Rose, Freeport, Mrs. Amy Gee, Carrier Mills, Mrs. Blanche Olden, Canada, and Luther Buchanan of Eddyville, a brother, Orval Buchanan of Raleigh, preceded her in death recently.

Mrs. Thompson moved from Carrier Mills in 1926 to Freeport where she lived until 1939 at which time she moved to Long Beach.

Funeral and burial were held today in California.

fears they might shell American ships evacuating the Nationalists. The 7th Fleet itself was reported somewhere north of Formosa. Naval sources here denied recent Nationalist reports that its units already had clashed with Communist vessels.

Attempt Against Kaotang Island
The Nationalists said the Communists made their latest and fourth attempt against Kaotang Island in the Matsu group on Sunday but reported the landing attempt was repulsed.

The island, only six miles off the Communist-held coast, is 100 miles south of Tachen and center of Chiang Kai-Shek's island defense outpost line. Reports from Matsu said the Reds had brought 70,000 troops into position just opposite the island and had massed large numbers of junks.

The Nationalists predicted Communist invasion of the three main Nationalist outposts—Tachen, Matsu and Quemoy—the moment the Communists consolidate their hold on Yikiangshan.

Large Force in Formosa
Wilson said Chiang Kai-Shek has in readiness on Formosa a large force of ground troops, for use if needed. Since this is true, he said, we don't need to worry too much about having a big ground force ready here.

"If we are so unfortunate as to get in increasing trouble with the Red Chinese," he said, "the first requirement will not be manpower."

3 In Race for Mayor, 23 for Commissioner

Filing of petitions for the city primary election March 1 ended yesterday with three candidates for mayor, 23 for commissioner and two for police magistrate.

Late filings brought Hudson Mudge and Walter Sisk into the race for mayor and Dr. Arthur Franks Jr., Sneed Jordan, Donald Williams, Elgin "Buck" Dillback, Clarence E. Vasseter, Robert S. Hull and Charles D. Taylor into the race for commissioner.

At the primary two will be nominated for mayor, eight for the four commissioner posts and two for police magistrate. The final election will be April 19 and the new council will take over the first Tuesday in May.

The complete list of candidates: Mayor—Claude Gibbons, Hudson Mudge, Walter Sisk.

Commissioners: Stobert D. Abney, Willard Blue, Morris Darnell, Elgin "Buck" Dillback, Harry Denny, Ernest Duncan, Earl J. Estes, Dr. Arthur Franks Jr., Lewis Goolsby, Ezra Heatherly, Charles Hine, Robert S. Hull, Sneed Jordan, Marion Lasseter, J. Arthur Moore, Durward "Red" Nipper, John H. L. Parish, Paul Tanner, Charles D. Taylor, Clarence E. Vaughn, Paul "Pat" Vargo, Charles Walker and Donald Williams.

Police Magistrate—Charles T. McKenzie, John Small.

Charles Raub, who filed petitions for commissioner, withdrew from the race yesterday afternoon, just after he had learned that he will be transferred from Harrisburg in about three months. He is manager of the Brokerage store.

He stated there is very little high school football in Canada and also very little college play. One of the advantages of pro football in Canada from the players' viewpoint is the shorter workweeks which permit the players to work during the day for extra income, Hunsinger stated.

Yes, he will go back as long as possible, Hunsinger stated, although he thought another year would be about as much as he would be able to play.

Several of the local Kiwanians attended an inspirational meeting at Marion Monday night which was addressed by the district governor and which was attended by other district officials.

Says Formosa Issue is 'Just A Little Ripple'

Vinson Proposes Administration Put Brakes on Cuts

WASHINGTON (UP)—Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson today described the Formosan crisis as "just a little ripple" and no reason to abandon planned reductions in U. S. armed strength.

Wilson made the statement after Chairman Carl Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Armed Services Committee proposed that the administration "put the brakes on" the proposed cuts in light of the Formosan situation.

Vinson said he was "concerned" that the planned reductions would impair the combat efficiency of American forces.

He said he thought it "might be wise" for Wilson to abandon cuts planned for the rest of this fiscal year, and then to consider the matter further.

But Wilson said the scheduled reductions are part of a long range plan and that he sees no need to upset the schedule.

"This Formosan business is just a little ripple in this business," he told the committee. "And as President Eisenhower has said, there is no reason to change our planning."

Will Use A-Weapons
In his prepared testimony, Wilson disclosed that military planners are planning vigorously to make atomic weapons part of the nation's continental defense system.

He also revealed that the atomic-powered submarine Nautilus is performing beyond expectations and has paved the way for eventual operation of atomic-powered aircraft.

Vinson did not take exception to the administration's long-range plan to cut military manpower to an eventual level of about 2,850,000 men.

However, he read from a letter he wrote Wilson several days ago in which he said he thought it would be better, in light of Formosa, to delay the part of this cut scheduled for the rest of this fiscal year ending Jan. 30.

He noted that Congress had appropriated, on the basis of the Defense Department's own requests, for a strength on July 1, 1955, of 3,032,000 men. Wilson has proposed to trim manpower by that date to 2,934,000 men.

Large Force in Formosa
Wilson said Chiang Kai-Shek has in readiness on Formosa a large force of ground troops, for use if needed. Since this is true, he said, we don't need to worry too much about having a big ground force ready here.

New Campaign Pattern

Editorial by Bruce Blossat

Recent stirrings in the Republican and Democratic political camps suggest that presidential campaigns in 1956 and thereafter are going to be a lot different than the ones we've known.

The Democrats tentatively have chosen Aug. 27, 1956, for their national convention, some five weeks later than the 1952 affair.
Republicans have not settled on a date, but are considering either late August or early September.

If the parties hold firm on the idea of late dates, the 1956 campaign will be one of the shortest in American history.

Certain effects of considerable political consequence may follow.
The August date, the campaign task
will be somewhat simplified.
But that very fact means that the prenomination period will be extended, adding to the strain and tension and perhaps bitterness in a hard-fought, open party contest.

On the other hand, for a nominee who is an incumbent President or an almost equally well-known national figure, the campaign tasks
will be somewhat simplified.
Whether they will be lightened is possibly a matter for argument.

Conventions usually find candidates, parties and sometimes even the electorate at fever pitch emotionally. It will be easier for a nominee to plunge from this atmosphere directly into a high-gear campaign of six or seven weeks.

Most politicians seem to think the situation is made to order for an incumbent, particularly, who need spend no time building himself up. By the same token, they believe a relative unknown will be hard-pressed to make impact on the people in so short a time.
Therefore, they feel that when familiar figures are ruled out, the build-up will have to start months before the actual conventions.

A few politicians dissent, arguing that with concentrated television and whirlwind airplane campaign tactics any candidate can be put across in the available time.
If this is really so, it should be obvious that to be successful such a drive must rely upon the most sharply refined political techniques conceivable.

Applying all this to the specific case of 1956, the politicians are saying with some reason that if President Eisenhower is a candidate for re-election his already great advantage—growing out of his popularity—will be multiplied.
If he is not going to run, party leaders think the GOP should waste no time in building up a successor candidate.

By the same reasoning, Adlai Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic candidate, right now the top choice anyway, would seem to be in a stronger position for 1956. Four years ago he went through the painful process of making himself known to the country.

However the new plans work out, they'll make 1956 a lively time.
Things are seldom dull when you smash old patterns.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: An American Warship Strafed By Red China; Backstage Efforts
Being Made To Kill Senate Monopoly Probe; Adlai Stevenson Works For Highly Controversial Law Client.

WASHINGTON. — One of the most important facts revealed by Secretary of State Dulles during his private talks with senators was that one American warship was strafed during the Red air attack on the Tachen Islands.

The damage was negligible, Dulles reported. He said he felt sure the strafing was accidental and that the Communists mistook the American ship for a Nationalist ship—especially because the Chinese Nationalist navy is largely over-age American vessels.

Dulles' attempt to play down the incident in talking to senators goes to the root of the argument he has been making to Admiral Arthur Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, against helping protect the Tachen Islands.

Actually the chief issue in the lengthy White House debates has been whether the United States would supply Chiang's troops on the Tachens. But what worries Dulles is that such supply ships are sure to be bombed from the air. If sunk, a hue and a cry is sure to go up from the American people.

The secretary of state does not want another "Remember the Maine!"

TO KILL MONOPOLY PROBE

Various wires are being pulled to kill one of the most potent probes of the last Congress — into Dixon-Yates and monopoly. Chief wire pullers are:

1. Old guard Republicans — Welker of Idaho, Butler of Maryland, Dirksen of Illinois et al.

2. Amiable mid-road Republican Senator Wiley of Wisconsin, hitherto acquiescing in the monopoly probe, but now veering over to big business. He now holds a key spot as ranking Republican member of the Senate Judiciary committee, where he can throw monkey-wrenches into the antimonopoly machinery.

3. The big TV broadcasters, who have learned that Chairman Kilgore of West Virginia will probe
the trend toward TV monopoly.
They are pressuring their Senate friends to block the whole monopoly probe.

Meanwhile, Congressman Wright
Patman of Texas, who has pioneered some of the best antimonopoly laws on the statute books, is forming a Small Business committee which should really do a job for small business. Patman has the backing of Sam Rayburn and is a man who can't be stopped. If the Lanker-Kefauver-Kilgore group is blocked, Patman will exert extra investigative steam in the House.

NEW TV SETS

The Navy has just purchased an amazing new radar tube which may revolutionize the television industry and also contribute to the safety of air travel.

Developed by Ross Aiken, a student of Dr. Scott Lawrence of California Tech, the new radar tube is about 1 1/2 inches thick instead of the bulky 24-inch tube used in present day TV sets. The present tube is what makes television sets so big. The new Aiken tube, however, is so small that it can be hung on the wall, and future TV sets will probably resemble a picture in your living room.

Because of the size of current radar, only the largest airplanes have the space to carry them. The Navy, however, has awarded contracts to install the new tubes in jet fighters. And because of the reduced size, future airplanes will now be able to carry three radars
— one so the pilot can tell what's above him, one so he can tell what's below, and another to tell what's in front during night flying or foggy weather.

ADLAI STEVENSON'S CLIENT

One interesting aspect of the new radar tube is what it will do to Adlai Stevenson's new client, the Radio Corporation of America.

RCA has acquired a long list of radio and radar patents and is now the defendant in one antitrust suit brought by the government, plus another brought by Zenith
Radio on grounds that RCA charges an unreasonable royalty on its patents, thereby eliminating competition.

The fact that Adlai Stevenson was willing to take this tough and unpopular antitrust case has led some observers to believe he does not plan to run again. Or maybe he didn't realize what he was getting into.

Key patent on which RCA's radar and television tubes are based has long been the subject of scrutiny inside the Justice Department, and at one time a criminal suit was considered against the giant TV-radio manufacturer. This was based on the Signal Corps contention that RCA had appropriated one of the most important secrets ever developed by the Signal Corps—radar.

Actually the Army consider this far more important than any of the alleged security risks over which Senator McCarthy stirred up such a furor last year.

What happened was that the Signal Corps, during the years 1932-36, developed the then revolutionary ability to look into space through radar. Later, William D.
Herschberger, a Signal Corps civilian who had worked on radar, resigned and turned up on the payroll of RCA. Following this, on Jan. 11, 1938, RCA filed for the basic patent on radar, listing as inventors Wm. D. Herschberger and I. Wolf, a laboratory man for RCA.

The Army was amazed. Immediately it moved with the Patent Office to keep the precious secret

from becoming public, which it was able to do.

ARMY COOLS

However, the Army could not stop RCA patents in foreign countries, and RCA proceeded to take out patents in Australia, New Zealand, Germany, Japan. This was in 1938, the year Hitler seized Czechoslovakia and when most newsmen were predicting war was inevitable. Shortly thereafter, World War II was on, with America's most valued secret in the hands of the enemy.

After the war, the Army consulted with the Patent Office and the Justice Department about bringing a suit against RCA. Suddenly, however, the Army cooled off.

Simultaneously, the head of the Signal Corps, Gen. Harry Ingles, retired on March 31, 1947, later became president of RCA Communications, Inc. Starting salary:
$30,000.

After that, the Army began to alibi for RCA and the criminal aspect of the suit was dropped. However, the Justice Department under the Sherman Antitrust Act, but never filed it. Assistant Attorney General Graham Morrison attempted to file, but was blocked by superiors. Later, under the Eisenhower administration, assistant Attorney General Stanley Barnes insisted that the case proceed. It has.

That is part of the rather large mouthful Adlai Stevenson has bitten off for himself by defending RCA, and why some of his friends believe he will not run again.

Randell T. Burton, son of Howard Burton, Harrisburg, was recently promoted to corporal while serving in Germany with the Seventh Army. Corporal Burton, a gunner with Battery D of the 91st Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion,
entered the Army in September 1953 and arrived in Europe the following March. He attended Roselare Community high school and was a machinist for the Whiting Corporation, Harvey, before entering the Army.

Farmers Keep Fingers Crossed About Drought

SPRINGFIELD (CP) — Illinois
farmers who have been hard hit by dry weather for three years are breathing easier but keeping their fingers crossed.

That's the way J. A. Ewing, State Agriculture department statistician, sums up the downstate water situation.

December and January rains have helped ease a three-year drought.

"There's water in the topsoil and nothing is suffering from lack of moisture now—but," says Ewing.

The "but" is why farmers are keeping their fingers crossed. Ewing explained three dry years have robbed the subsoil of its water reserves.

No Reservoir of Water

"It all depends on whether we get the necessary spring and summer rains to really soak the subsoil," Ewing added.

"If we don't there isn't any 'water in the bank' to draw on, and we will be even worse off than in 1954," he said.

Ewing isn't doing any predicting.
But there's a saying that down-state dry spells never last more than three years.

Optimists point to U. S. Weather Bureau figures for January rainfall and say the drought is broken.

The Springfield Weather Bureau reported that more than two inches of rain has fallen during January, compared to less than half an inch in the entire month of January, 1954, and an identical figure for January, 1953.

Capital 10 Inches Under Normal

Weather Bureau figures indicated rainfall at Springfield of about 25 inches during all of 1954. That's 10 inches under the "normal" yearly precipitation. Figures for 1953 were almost identical.

The figures, "typical for the northern part of the downstate dry area," indicate only a small part of the dry weather which has plagued the southern half of the state.

The dry weather line runs roughly from Hamilton, in Hancock County, through Decatur to Paris in Edgar County. The area north of the line had little if any dry weather last year. The drought hit hardest in the far southern part of the state, with rainfall gradually increasing northward.

Like Ewing, Weather Bureau officials reported the winter rains have eased the situation, soaking the topsoil. But heavy spring rains will have to soak the ground to a considerable depth before the danger to next season's crops is past.

Barter is Apparent Low Bidder on Work At Fairfield Airport

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — The J. D.
Barter Construction Co., of Harrisburg, was apparent low bidder today for construction work at Fairfield municipal airport (Wayne county). Arthur E. Abney, director of the Illinois Department of Aeronautics, announced.

The company's bid was $10,793.
Proposed work at Fairfield will include grading and drainage for a north-south landing strip, connecting taxiway and aircraft parking apron, surfaced auto parking area, fencing and turfing.

Miss Jeanette Strand, Jack N. Lafayette Married in Ceremony at Stronghurst, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack N. Lafayette

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Jeanette Strand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Strand of Stronghurst, Ill., and Jack N. Lafayette, son of Mrs. Dorothy Lafayette and the late Henry Lafayette Sr., 1228 South Webster.

The candlelight double ring wedding ceremony took place at the Bethel Lutheran church in Stronghurst Sunday, Jan. 16, at 2:30 p. m. with the Rev. Carl D. Bostrom, pastor of the church, officiating.

Large baskets of white snapdragons, pompoms and chrysanthemums, and candelabra formed an attractive setting for the rites, and white satin bows added to the decoration. The organist, Mrs. Mary Pearson, played a medley of nuptial music preceding the ceremony and accompanied Miss Janet Lefler, cousin of the bride, who sang "Because," and "Through the Years" and at the close of the service as a benediction, "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a long bouffant skirt, fitted bodice, fastened with tiny buttons down the back, a peter pan collar and long fitted sleeves. Her double veil of illusion was edged with chantilly lace and held in place by a Juliet lace cap trimmed with pearls. She also wore a pearl necklace and earrings and carried a white orchid mounted on a white pearl studded Bible, gift of the bridegroom, and a lace handkerchief.

Mrs. Jess Myers Jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor, wearing a floor length dress of rose satin with matching hat adorned with pearls and sprigs of heather. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and sprigs of heather.

Flower girl was little Miss Kathryn Myers, niece of the bride. She also wore a rose satin gown styled identically to that of the matron of honor. She wore a sprig of heather in her hair. Her white basket filled with rose petals was decorated with heather and a lavender satin bow.

Master James Peterson, cousin of the bride, carried the satin pillow, acting as ring bearer.

Jess Myers Jr., brother-in-law of the bride, was best man. Paul Thorell of Milwaukee, Wis., and Ronald Peterson of Burlington, Iowa, the bride's cousins, were ushers and Donald Lefler, Stronghurst, also a cousin of the bride, lighted the candles.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother chose a navy blue dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Lafayette, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in a white lace over powder blue taffeta with satin trim. Her accessories were white and she wore a corsage of pink roses.

A reception for one hundred and fifty guests was held afterwards in the church parlors which were beautifully decorated in rose and white. A four tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom and decorated with roses and white bells centered the table. At each side were placed rose colored tapers.

Mrs. Carl L. Johnson presided at the punch bowl and Miss Gladys Wilson at the coffee service.

Hostesses were Mrs. Carl L. Johnson, Miss Gladys Wilson, Miss Roberta Stevens, Miss Judith Juers, Miss Isabel Husted, Miss Jean Kemp, Mrs. John Dillon, Mrs. Arthur Swanson, Mrs. Lee Carlson and Mrs. Wendell Wetherling.

Following a short wedding trip to St. Louis, Mo., the couple is now at their newly decorated apartment, 2914 Eastlawn Ave., Detroit, Mich., where the bridegroom is employed with the Plymouth Corp.

The bride is a graduate of the Stronghurst high school and Electronic-Radio-Television Institute of Omaha, Neb., where she majored in Airline personnel.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the Harrisburg Township high school and of Coyne Electrical of Chicago. He spent four years in the Air Force, two in Germany where he graduated from the N. C. O. Academy in Munich. He received his discharge August 13, 1954, at Kilmer, N. J.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Don Heller of Detroit, Mich., his mother, Mrs. Dorothy Lafayette, and cousin, Mrs. R. W. Seibert and friend, Harold York, of Harrisburg, Mrs. Gillman Thorell and Paul of Milwaukee, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pearson and Barbara of Cedar Rapids, Ia., Mrs. Keith Fry of Indianapolis, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerdes, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson, Ronald, Dennis and Joy, Mrs. Ned Swygard and Craig and Mrs. Paul Hartman, all of Burlington, Ia.

The bridegroom's brother and the bride's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lafayette Jr. who live in Dade City, Fla., were unable to attend the wedding but called immediately after the ceremony to offer their congratulations.

Carroll Prather, employee of Blue Bird 8 mine who was injured in a rock fall while at work Monday night, was taken this morning to the Welborn hospital in Evansville, Ind.

Eden Defends Eisenhower Formosa Plan

LONDON (AP) — Foreign Minister Anthony Eden today staunchly defended President Eisenhower's proposed defense of Formosa and the Pescadores and said "never in the century" has Formosa been considered a part of China.

He denied charges by former Socialist Prime Minister Clement Attlee that the U. S. action constituted interference with China's civil war.

Eden, breaking Britain's official silence on the Formosa crisis, drew a sharp line of distinction between Formosa and China's "offshore islands"—which presumably would include the embattled Tachens and Nationalist-held Quemoy off the Red China port of Amoy.

He said Britain considered the "offshore islands" as part of Red China.

Formosa, he said, was not considered part of China.

The Socialist charges echoed in part the position taken by today's issue of the Communist Party newspaper Pravda in Moscow.

Pravda charged Mr. Eisenhower's message to Congress constituted "brazen intervention" in Red China's internal affairs and an attempt to prepare an invasion of the mainland.

But Eden explained: "President Eisenhower in his recent message to Congress has been careful to say that he is not suggesting that the U. S. should enlarge its defensive obligations beyond Formosa and the Pescadores."

Bernarr MacFadden

In Canada to Duck

Alimony Demands

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (AP) — Bernarr MacFadden, hiding in this honeymoon haven from two alimony-hungry wives, said today he "might stay forever" and set up a Canadian physical culture resort.

"I have a resort in Danville, N. Y.," he said, "and many Wealthy Canadians go there. They have always urged me to set up a similar spot in Canada and I might now."

MacFadden, 37, stopped drinking carrot juice long enough to explain that he fled here Saturday to escape an $8,000 alimony claim from one wife and a $6,500 suit from another.

The U. S. government also wants to talk to him about taxes.

"I might stay forever," he said. "I don't have to pay anything as long as I'm here. I toured Canada 40 years ago but I have never stayed in this country until now. I might settle right here."

The health hero, who is sleeping his nights away on the floor of a General Brock Hotel suite, said he now was living on a $2,000-a-month annuity which he bought 15 years ago when he sold his interests in the MacFadden publications firm.

Two Bills Propose

Ban of Communist

Party in Illinois

SPRINGFIELD (AP) — Twenty-seven senators today proposed legislation to outlaw the Communist Party in Illinois.

The two bills, submitted to the state Senate, also would make it an offense to belong "knowingly" to any subversive organization, and require loyalty oaths of all state and local government employees.

Sen. Paul W. Broyles, Mount Vernon Republican who has been trying since 1949 to enact anti-subversive laws, was the chief sponsor.

Broyles got one bill outlawing subversive activities through the 1953 Legislature, after a bitter fight, only to have it vetoed by Gov. William G. Stratton.

The senator told a reporter he had conferred with Stratton about the new legislation, however, and he was "sure" of the governor's support.

Mrs. A. B. Gass

Dies at Eldorado

Mrs. Mary Josephine Gass, 71, resident of Eldorado, died this morning at 12:40 in the Ferrell hospital.

She is survived by her husband, Ador B. Gass, and the following children: Walter of Eldorado, Paul and Orville Gass, and Mrs. Eunice Weaver, all of Detroit, Mich.; one brother, Henry J. Ratcliffe, Santa Cruz, Calif., and three sisters, Mrs. Mark Hunley, Mrs. Walter Chitty, both of Harrisburg, and Mrs. E. O. Tankersley, Middleton, Ohio; 13 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Friday at 2 p. m. in the chapel of the Eldorado funeral home. Rev. Eula Sanders will officiate, and burial will be in the Lindale Memorial Gardens.

Britain, France

Reject Soviet Notes

MOSCOW (AP) — Britain and France today rejected Soviet complaints against German rearmament contained in Russia's December notes threatening to cancel friendship treaties with the two nations.

The Franco-British views were made known after the ambassadors of the two nations visited the Soviet Foreign Office.

Texts of the notes were not expected to be available for release by the press until Thursday.

Eastern Star Home

For Aged Burns

DECATUR, Ill. (AP) — Firemen from five towns stood by today to guard against an outbreak of flames at the Eastern Star home for the aged at nearby Macon, where fire caused an estimated $90,000 damage Tuesday night.

About 10 patients were evacuated from the wing where the fire broke out. No one was injured.

Mrs. Lee Allen Hostess

To Good Neighbor Club

The Good Neighbor club met with Mrs. Lee Allen Wednesday afternoon with 11 members answering roll call.

The hostess led the group in the opening song followed with prayer by Mrs. A. J. Droit. The group voted to give a nice donation to the March of Dimes fund.

It was announced that a family dinner party would be held at the Abney school on Feb. 12 with an auction to replenish the treasury.

A contest entitled "Women of the Bible" was won by Mrs. Vola Sittig.

Two guests, Mrs. Sittig and Mrs. Dean Guey, joined the club and were initiated.

The hostess served a fruit salad, cookies, coffee and hot chocolate during the social hour. The February meeting will be with Mrs. George Bond, president of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hamby and daughter, Wilma, attended church at Union Chapel Sunday and visited former neighbors, the families of Leland Hayes, Charles Lockwood and John C. Small.

The Union Chapel church has extended its basement to full size and expects to finish the work this week.

Mt. Moriah trustees voted to build a cistern at their church. Work began yesterday.

Paul Andrews Rated Second Among Contenders for Light Heavyweight Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Paul Andrews of Buffalo, N. Y., was boosted into position to negotiate for a light heavyweight title fight today by the Ring magazine's latest ratings.

Andrews, 24-year-old protege of Joe Louis, was lifted from fifth to second place among 175-pound contenders because of his upset knockout over Boardwalk Billy Smith.

Smith of Atlantic City was the top contender when Andrews stopped him in the sixth round at Miami on Dec. 29 and snapped Billy's winning streak at eight straight. The defeat dropped Smith to fifth rung.

Now, only ex-champion Joey Maxim of Cleveland is ranked above Andrews; but Maxim already has engaged champion Archie Moore in three title fights and lost three decisions. Andrews is in an enviable position for negotiating a title fight.

Harold Johnson of Philadelphia and young Floyd Patterson of Brooklyn remained in their third and fourth berths, respectively.

In the heavyweight division, Rex Layne of Salt Lake City, Utah, was boosted from ninth to seventh; and Charley Norkus of Jersey City was lifted one notch to ninth. But Jimmy Slade of New York was dropped from seventh to 10th.

Vince Martinez of Paterson, N. J., rose from sixth to fourth among welterweight contenders because of his victory over Al Andrews.

Joey Giardello Favored Tonight Over Al Andrews

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—What have the cops, surgeons and boxing officials done to Joey Giardello, stormy petrel of the ring?

Philadelphia Joey will provide the answer tonight in his nationally televised make-or-break fight with speedy Al Andrews at the Norfolk City Auditorium.

If the No. 1 contender wins impressively over Andrews of Superior, Wis., he can clinch a shot at Bobo Olson's middleweight crown in late March at the Chicago Stadium.

but if he loses, he can blame a knee operation, two embroilments with Philadelphia police and a boxing with the Pennsylvania Rucking Commission. This is his first ring appearance since he ran the gamut of a madcap's misfortunes.

It is also the first fight ever televised from the state of Virginia, and Norfolk's first professional boxing show in seven years. All profits from the expected gate of $17,000 will go to the March of Dimes polio fund. In addition, the International Boxing Club will contribute $2,000.

Giardello, 24, is favored at 13-5.

McLeansboro Edges Carrier Mills, 68-66

Rollins Scores 47 Points For the Wildcats

A well-balanced scoring attack by McLeansboro offset another one-man scoring spree by Carrier Mills' Oliver Rollins and McLeansboro edged out a 68-66 decision Tuesday night. The game was played at Carrier Mills.

McLeansboro's sophomore-student squad ran, jumped and shot in the manner that has become a trademark of McLeansboro basketball over the years. It was probably the fastest, most exciting game played on the Wildcat floor this season.

Three of the visitors, Sloan, Hall and Lee, hit in double figures—Sloan had 23, Hall 19 and Lee 18. The first two are sophomores.

Oliver Rollins followed up his 52-point production of last Friday with a 47-point effort last night, hitting for 18 field goals and 11 free tosses. He had 18 in the first quarter, only four in the second, eight in the third and then came back with 17 in a fourth quarter rally that almost pulled the home team even.

During the last quarter McLeansboro's big three—Sloan, Hall and Lee—had been whistled from the game via the foul route and the reserves barely held off the battling 'Cats in the closing minutes.

The decision gave McLeansboro a record of 12 victories against five losses.

Carrier Mills will be idle until the week-end when it will take part in the annual Saline County Tournament to be played at Davenport gym, Harrisburg.

The box score:

McLeansboro (68)	fg	ft	tp	pf
Rollins	10	2	3	2

Thompsonville Loses 68-60 Conference Tilt to Crab Orchard

Crab Orchard checked a big last quarter Thompsonville rally last night to defeat the Tigers, 68-60, in a Little Egyptian conference game. The Tigers now have a 6-4 league record.

The Trojans jumped quickly into a 20-13 advantage and extended their margin to 42-24 by halftime. Thompsonville began to check the invaders in the second half, but still trailed 53-34 entering the final canto.

A 26-point fourth quarter brought the host team back into the game but time cut short all victory hopes.

CRAB ORCHARD — Peoples 8, Browning 8, Graves 9, Chance 10, Hill 10, Proctor 21, Merrill 2. THOMPSONVILLE — Doss 4, Lemmon 14, Hodgson 12, Gregory 7, Marsh 16, Johnson 7, Carlyle 0, Snyder 0.

Three Games Played In Church Tourney

Three games were played in the church-sponsored basketball tournament Tuesday night.

In the younger division the Dorrisville Social Brethren team won over the Christian club 17-8 and Mt. Calvary Baptist won on a forfeit from the Salvation army.

In senior division play Muddy Baptist defeated Sloan Street General Baptist 30-25 and the First

Shawneetown Beats Ridgway For 20th Win

Using tactics similar to those employed by Galatia in the recent conference tournament, Ridgway's Eagles checked Shawneetown for three quarters last night before bowing to the unbeaten Indians, 40-31. It was the 20th straight victory for the Shawnees without a defeat.

Victory over the Eagles assured Barney Genis's powerhouse a share in the Greater Egyptian conference title. The Shawneetown team can clinch the title, undisputedly, by downing Cave-in-Rock when the two clubs meet at Shawneetown on Feb. 4.

Ridgway elected to maintain possession of the ball as much as possible in their fracas with the Indians last night. The strategy almost paid off, but once again the Indians were equal to the occasion. After trailing 5-2 early in the game, Ridgway knotted things at 5-all and by the end of the period had opened up a 12-7 lead.

Twice in the second period the Eagles held seven-point margins—their longest of the game. Garrison Newsom, who sat out most of the first quarter resting an injured ankle, fired up the Indians in the second and at halftime they trailed only 20-18.

Ridgway maintained the lead throughout the third, playing slow, cautious ball. During this period Shawneetown cut their lead to one point on three occasions. As the fourth opened, the unbeaten Genisians grabbed the tip-off, and Spottsville scored on a drive-in. This gave the Indians the upper hand for keeps.

Spottsville added a freetoss, giving the invaders a 29-27 margin. Ridgway, in possession of the ball, elected to hold it until less than four minutes remained in the game. Then, missing their effort, Shawneetown's Newsom drew a charity toss. He made both efforts, boosting the Indian margin to four points.

Capitalize on Miscues

After that it was Ridgway endeavoring to break up the Indian freeze, and the Shawnees capitalized on Eagle miscues.

Shawneetown hit 13 of 38 tries from the field for a 34-27 Ridgway connected on 10 of 29 for a 34-5. At the foul line, the Indians made 14 of 22, the Eagles 11 of 18. Shawneetown was cold in the field during the first period, making only three of 15 attempts.

SHAWNEETOWN — Nolen 4, Spottsville 18, Joyner 4, Newsom 8, Gunzel 3, Drone 3, RIDGWAY — P. Drone 4, Downen 12, D. Drone 0, Barter 8, Crayne 6, Dillard 1.

FIGHT RESULTS

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.: John Holman, 204 1-2, Chicago, stopped Cesar Brion, 203, Argentina (4).

HUNTINGTON, W. Va.: Nino Valdes, 212, Cuba, knocked out Jack Flood, 204, Spokane, Wash. (7).

Methodist won from the First Baptist 23-20.

Thursday four more games will be played. In the junior group it will be the First Baptist vs. Presbyterian and Nazarene vs. First Methodist; in senior play the Catholic and Social Brethren teams meet and Ledford Baptist and Nazarene.

That was last year. What will the 1955 tourney produce in the way of highlights and records? Come to Davenport gym Friday and come back again Saturday. Your favorite team may not win, but you will have seen four thrilling basketball games. Can't expect much more over a two-night period. There will also be band music and other entertainment and popcorn. See you there!

Sid Gillman is Named Coach of Los Angeles Rams

NEW YORK (AP)—Sid Gillman, brand-new coach of the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League, was expected here today to confer with Club President Dan Reeves and team scouts about the annual player draft which starts Thursday.

Gillman, whose University of Cincinnati teams lost only five games in the last four years, was announced Tuesday night as the successor to Hampton Pool, Rams' coach who resigned at the end of the 1954 season.

Terms of Gillman's contract were not announced, but the 43-year-old coach, speaking at his home in Cincinnati, said, "I'm happy with it."

FIGHT RESULTS

CHICAGO: Waldo Fusaro, 147 1-2, Milan, Italy, stopped Carlo Sarlo, 147, Chicago (3).

NEW ORLEANS, Lawrence Armstrong, 136, New Orleans, stopped Billy Lunch, 138, Hartford, Conn. (2).

By BILL MELTON

Friday and Saturday at Davenport gymnasium the second annual Saline county basketball tournament will be staged and a glance at team rosters indicates that a lot of boys playing in this tourney will be back for the third annual tourney a year from now.

Defending champ Carrier Mills, with only one player back that played in the 1954 tourney—Oliver Rollins—has a roster of 13 players with only one senior in the group. Max Berns, co-captain, is the only senior listed. There are six juniors, five sophomores and one freshman.

Carrier Mills probably will have the only freshman starter in Vernon Rollins and he may not start, but is bound to see lots of action as he has been holding down a regular berth for the past several games.

Eldorado, winner of runner up honors last year, has a roster of ten juniors and four seniors. Team captain Keith Whittier is the only Eagle returning that saw action in the first county cage show.

Galatia lists four seniors, including captain Glenn Clarida, two juniors and four sophomores.

Harrisburg shows four seniors and seven juniors. Senior lettermen are Harrison, Price, Polk and Wasson.

Three Galatia boys finished one-two-three in the battle for scoring honors last year. Bob Orto had 44, Sammy Duane 35, and Joe Upchurch 33. Orto and Duane tied for single game honors, each with 33.

Total scoring by teams shows that Galatia also took honors, with 140 in the two games. Harrisburg was second with 119. Carrier Mills had 109 and Eldorado 98. However the big scoring was in Galatia's 91 to 72 victory over Harrisburg and the two teams with the lowest tourney total finished first and second. Carrier Mills had a close 33-41 win over Galatia and in the title tilt won from Eldorado 56-44.

A look at the four columns indicates the boys were playing a clean game. On opening night Carrier Mills, Galatia and Harrisburg each had 16 fouls called against them, and Eldorado was whistled just eight times. On the final night Eldorado and Carrier Mills fouled but 16 times each. However the Harrisburg-Galatia game, a big scoring affair, also had more fouls called, 34 on the Bulls Dogs and 20 on the Bearcats. A fast-moving, high-scoring game always brings on more fouling.

That was last year. What will the 1955 tourney produce in the way of highlights and records? Come to Davenport gym Friday and come back again Saturday. Your favorite team may not win, but you will have seen four thrilling basketball games. Can't expect much more over a two-night period. There will also be band music and other entertainment and popcorn. See you there!

Galatia, Broughton Win Openers in Midget Loop Tourney

Galatia and Broughton advanced through the opening round of the Midget conference tournament Tuesday night. The tourney is being held at Galatia.

In the first game Galatia defeated Carrier Mills 41-21 and then Broughton copped a close 42-39 decision over Dorrisville.

In this evening's play Galatia will face Muddy and Broughton and Raleigh meet in the nightcap.

Thursday the consolation and championship games of the tourney will be played with tonight's losers meeting for third place honors, followed by tonight's winners for the title.

A near capacity crowd was on hand for Tuesday's games.

Wally Moon IN THE Sport Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY

United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Wally Moon of the St. Louis Cardinals, the National League Rookie of the Year, said today he was "making book" against the so-called sophomore jinx because he intends to keep playing "with the enthusiasm of a freshman."

The lean and wiry Arkansan actually does keep a "book" on rival pitchers. Into it go such things as their favorite pitches and the "pattern" of their deliveries.

"Actually," Wally says honestly "anybody's cockiness. I've never better player this year than I was last season."

The principal reasons behind his confident thinking are that he has learned how to play the various parks and that he now knows what to expect when facing pitchers who were strangers to him as a rookie. This is a switch on the usual thinking, for the theory is that pitchers have an edge after studying the hitters.

Disagrees With Theory

"I don't hold with that theory," argues the rangy Moon. "The pitchers only see a batter on a few pitches. But the hitter can study the pitcher the whole time he's throwing."

Study is a watchword with Wally, who refused to play pro ball as a full-time business until after he had completed work for his masters degree in physical education at Texas A and M. A player of the old "Gas House Gang" type, the kind who fights for every inch on the ball field, he still has studiously made a science of baseball.

Last season he was in the thick of the race for the National League batting championship, hitting .340, when he went into a late August slump which caused him to wind up the season with a .304 average.

"One reason," he explains analytically, "is that I wasn't beating out those infield hits. I had played winter ball and I was tiring badly at the end of the season. Early I had been getting down to first base in less than four seconds. But later it was taking me 4.1 or 4.2 and I was losing that important half step."

Great Man For Detail

As you can see, he is a great man for planning the details. And, he admitted, that's how he reached the major leagues.

It has been one of baseball's myths that Wally "accidentally" turned up at the main Cardinals camp at St. Petersburg, Fla., last season when he should have been at the rookie camp in Deland, Fla.

"There wasn't a thing accidental about it," he revealed with a wide grin. "I had been playing winter ball in Venezuela and had permission to stay for the playoffs. So when I returned, there were only a few days left in the rookie camp and I knew that Manager Eddie Stanky already had left the camp and wouldn't even see me."

Ignores Orders

So Moon just ignored his orders for Deland and went to St. Petersburg. When Stanky told him he should have gone to Deland, Wally said, "Yeah, but you're here."

Stanky liked his spirit and gave him a chance which was to mark the end of Country Slaughter as a Cardinal. Wally hit a homer, triple and double in his first exhibition game and kept right on going until he tired in August. On his first official time at bat in a league game he blasted a homer, a feat accomplished by only two other players in baseball history. That first month he went five-for-five against the Braves and against the Cubs stole four bases in one game.

"That's what made him a rookie success—and he's counting on that driving desire to keep him right on top."

Scouts Name Major League Recruits Most Likely to Succeed

By HARRY GRAYSON

NEA Sports Editor
NEW YORK (NEA)—Major league scouts agree on a half-dozen recruits coming up this spring. They are:

Southpaw Herb Score, joining the Indians.

Karl Spooner, left-hand pitcher, and Shortstop Chico Fernandez, reporting to the Dodgers.

Catcher Hal Smith, obtained by the Orioles from the Yankees via Columbus of the American Association.

Outfielder Bill Virdon, stepping up to the Cardinals.

Outfielder Bob Lennon, paged by the Giants.

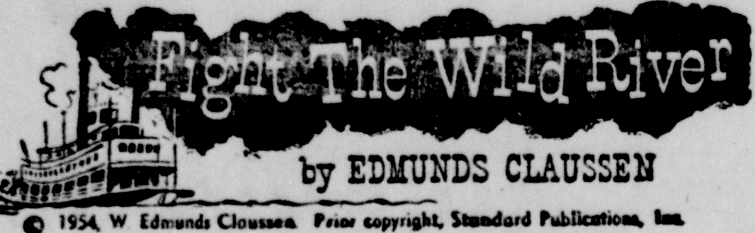

Half of them—Score, Spooner and Lennon—established new league records. Five led their leagues.

Score gives the Indians another fireballer. Powering the ball for Indianapolis the big 22-year-old fanned 330 in 215 innings, par for the course and then some and a new American Association mark. Hank Greenberg and some predict he will lead the American league in strikeouts, ahead of Bob Turley. He earned 22 while losing 5 with an earned-run average of 2.62, lowest in the AAA circuit.

As concrete evidence that every ball he throws does something, the 23-year-old Spooner struck out 262, a new Texas League record, despite the fact that he was out

He shoved away his splint-banded chair and had half risen from the dinner table when Goss's bell frantically sounded the engine room. Jim Melott cut off the paddles, boots began scraping the lower decks. Already Crotch was racing toward the pilothouse. He hit the dazzling outer light that was like a sheet, blinding him. At first he could make out nothing wrong. "You see that fellow in the river?" Goss's voice struck from the pilothouse.

Crotch threw his gaze ahead and to starboard, picked out a figure standing hip deep near the river bank. Crotch's facial muscles pulled up tighter. The marooned man stood on a sandbar, supporting a dog pack with both his arms and shoulders. "He has Robert! And the others!" Lilly's cry came pinched in excitement. Crotch gave her his
